Saskatchewan credit unions announce the opening of the Art Gallery of Regina's
33rd Annual Salon Show, March 17 to April 10, 2010

REGINA (March 3, 2010) – Saskatchewan credit unions are pleased to present the Art Gallery of Regina's 33rd Annual Salon Show, featuring original artworks by over 80 local and regional artists representing a broad range of media. The exhibition opens with a Gallery Reception on Wednesday, March 17, 2010 from 7 to 9 p.m. (Media representatives are invited.)

This exhibition showcases the tremendous talent in our community and the incredible range of artwork being produced in this province. New and established artists are on display. The show is hung 'salon' style and all artwork is for sale.

"Sponsoring the Annual Salon Show provides Saskatchewan artists with an opportunity to share their talent and creativity with the public," says Pam Skotnitsky, SaskCentral's Executive Vice-President, Corporate and Community Affairs. "Saskatchewan credit unions are proud to be part of an occasion that brings people and communities together through an appreciation of art and imagination."

About Saskatchewan credit unions

There are 64 credit unions in Saskatchewan serving 283 communities through 310 service outlets. Saskatchewan credit unions build lives and fulfill dreams by helping their members achieve financial well-being and investing in their communities.
